LONDON, April 30.

LAST week a nobleman of distinction sent for a gentleman well known in naval affairs, and a great favourite of a personage of the first rank, when they had a long conversation, it is supposed, on matters of great importance.

It is said the principal merchants, concerned in the trade of a certain American colony, have lately received such accounts from thence, that an application above has been judged absolutely necessary, and we are told the same will take place in a few days.

A person of considerable eminence in the literary world has made choice of a modern story for the subject of a tragedy. General Wolfe is to be the hero, and the title of the play, The Siege of Quebec.

May 1. Part of a letter from Quebeck, says, "The very existence of this place as a commercial province, depends upon a total change of the unhappy and preposterous measures now adopted. I can add no more, for my senses are lost in the tumultuous noise of the populace, who are just carrying out to execution a certain effigy, with the most bitter execrations."

By recent letters from Gibraltar it appears, that the conjunct fleets of France and Spain are intended on an expedition against Santa Cruz, on the coast of Barbary, a port belonging to the Emperor of Morocco.

The report of his majesty intending this summer to visit his dominions in Germany, we are informed, is premature.

The evening papers of last night say, that the earl of Rochfort is to go ambassador to the court of France, in the room of the earl of Hertford, who is shortly expected home to be secretary of state, the earl of Buckinghamshire ambassador at Madrid, lord Egmont one of the commissioners of the treasury, and the earl of Sandwich to retire.

We hear some dispatches of consequence have, within these few days been received from chief justice Gregory, of his Majesty's province of Quebec, which have already been laid before a cabinet council.

We hear such of the American colonies as have not been reimbursed their proportion of the expences in the expeditions of the year 1762, will soon have the king's warrant on the treasury for discharging the same.

His royal highness the duke of York, notwithstanding what may have been said to the contrary, is preparing to go abroad.

MAY 3.

It is thought, notwithstanding the advance of the sessions, some farther reductions of the duties on West-India produce, particularly muscovado sugars, will take place, previous to the breaking up of an august assembly.

It is said a great personage won 12,000 l. last Monday at Newmarket, in the match between his royal highness the duke of Cumberland's King Herod, and the duke of Grafton's Antonius.

MAY 4.

Private letters from Madrid mention, that a scheme has actually been formed at court, to send over some of the most experienced crown engineers, in order to survey the American isthmus, commonly called the isthmus of Panama; after which such dispositions will be taken, as to render a passage by land from the north to the south seas, impracticable to any future attempts of an enemy. This famous passage, by the account of the best writers, is little more than 70 miles over from the bottom of the Gulph of Darien to the Spanish settlements in the South Seas, and has more than once been successfully attempted by the Buccaneers in America.

Arthur Savage, Esq; of Boston, New-England, is appointed comptroller of the customs, at Falmouth, in America.

Monday last his royal highness the duke of Cumberland's horse King Herod, beat the duke of Grafton's horse Antonius, at Newmarket, for 1000 guineas.

It is under consideration to give a bounty of so much per ton on all American-built ships, built for and sold at foreign markets.

It is said a great personage has signified a desire to visit some of the North-American provinces this summer; and that lord Edgecombe will hoist his flag on that occasion at Plymouth.

A young West-India gentleman is said to have won last Newmarket races, the sum of thirteen thousand pounds sterling.

A few days ago Mr. Munro was appointed inspector of the stamp-duties in North-America.

MAY 8.

They write from Berlin, that the king of Prussia lately gave with his own hands, a gold medal, value fifty ducats, to a young woman, who presented to his Majesty nine male children, born in lawful wedlock; the joint lives of herself and husband, not exceeding 45 years.

It has been computed, that a national saving, little short of half a million sterling, will be the result of encouraging the importation of ship and other timber from North-America.

We hear that a certain admiral, who greatly distinguish'd himself in the service of his country in both the Indies, during the late war, will soon be called up to the house of peers.

Sunday last one of the black clergymen lately ordained, attended divine service at St. Sepulchre's church, with his new married spouse, who is of a different complexion.

Monday the right hon. Hans Stanley, took the oath to qualify him for governor of the Isle of Man.

The hon. William Pitt, Esq; was not at the house of commons on Monday, as was expected, he being much indisposed at Hayes.

MAY 9.

We are assured that the regency is settled to general satisfaction.

We hear an assembly composed of the principal inhabitants, is going to be introduced in the new form of government, of the Isle of Man.

It is now confidently again asserted, that the old palace of St. James's will shortly be pulled down, and a very magnificent one erected on the same spot, when, it is said, their Majesties will quit the Queen's palace, the situation being, by an able physician esteemed not so healthy as at St. James's, which is a fine gravely soil.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Wilkes, to his friend in London, dated Naples, March 25, 1765.

"The foreign gazettes are very impertinently sending me into the service of half the princes of Europe; I hope my friends do me more justice at home, and think of me, as I do myself ever actually in the service of England, and for my life unalienably attached to my native country. The most unjust and cruel persecutions, the most unmerited outlawries, shall never warp my allegiance. I do not forget the present page of our history, and a second letter to the borough of Aylesbury shall soon prove it."

Letters received in Holland from Batavia bring advice, that the Africa, a Dutch East-India company coasting vessel, on her passage from that place to Timor, being driven ashore amongst some rocks, was boarded by a great number of the inhabitants, who pretended to give their assistance, but soon after beginning to plunder the said ship, and make slaves of the crew, which convinced the Dutch captain of their treachery, who went down and set fire to the powder room, and blew himself up with every person on board.

It is said that certain propositions on the part of France have very lately been made to his excellency lord Hertford at Paris, relating to the payment of the Canada bills; but they are said to fall so short of what might have been expected in common justice, not to mention the sanction of treaties, and the parole royal, that they were rejected with the contempt they merited.

NEW-YORK, July 5.

R. Cummings, formerly a printer in Cork, and about 14 years ago a merchant in New-York, in company with Johnson, who planned the conquest of Senegal and Goree, has obtained a grant of 500 l. per annum for thirty years, as a reward for his services.

We hear that Mr. James M'Evers, merchant, of this city, is appointed commissioner for collecting the stamp-duties in this government.

June 10. By a gentleman who arrived here last week, from Montreal, we have the following melancholly piece of intelligence, viz. That on the 17th ult. at half an hour after one in the afternoon, a fire broke out in the house of Mr. John Livingston, of that place, and there being only two small engines, and the French extremely ignorant of the method of extinguishing fires, the flames soon spread with great rapidity on both sides of the street, and the wind being very high, one hundred and fifteen houses were entirely consumed by five o'clock in the evening, with immense quantities of goods contained therein, it being the principal street in the place, and where all the English merchants resided. A nunnery was also consumed, and three nuns, a French gentlemen and lady, and a negro wench lost their lives. On the occasion, the army, animated by the presence of Brigadier General Burton, exerted themselves in a particular manner, and, it is said, it was owing to their activity that the whole town was not destroyed, as several of the poor soldiers were much burnt in removing goods from the houses whilst in flames, most of the French inhabitants having retired to their churches, being greatly intimidated by some small explosions of gun-powder, that happened whilst the houses were in flames, as several of the merchants, very imprudently, had quantities of that article in their garrets. It is said the fire was occasioned by a negro wench carrying a quantity of ashes in the upper story of Mr. Livingston's house, not with any bad design, but to be kept there for making soap.

Friday morning last the Rev. Mr. Whitefield, preached his farewell sermon to the inhabitants of this place, in the Presbyterian meeting-house; and yesterday he embarked for England in the Earl of Halifax packet.

NEW-LONDON, May 24.

A number of the inhabitants of Windham were a few days ago warned to work on the highways in that town, when one of them refused to work; whereupon the surveyor used his influence to persuade him to it, but to no purpose, he absolutely refusing to work on the highways, since (as he said) a stamp-duty was laid on the colony.

BOSTON, June 3.

Our trade is in a most deplorable situation, not one fifth part of the vessels now employed in the West-India trade, as was before the late regulations; our cash almost gone before the stamp and post-office acts are to operate; bankruptcies multiplied, our fears increased, and the friends of liberty under the greatest despondency: What these things will end in, time only can discover.

By letters from London we learn, that his Majesty has made a present to the nation of the sum of 700,000 l. Sterling.

ANNAPOLIS, June 6.

We learn from the Northward, that the STAMP ACT is to take place in America, on all saints day, the first of November next. In the year 1755, on the 1st of November, happened that dreadful and memorable Earthquake, which destroyed the city of Lisbon.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.

We hear the following gentlemen are appointed stamp officers, for the under-mentioned places, viz. ANDREW OLIVER, Esq; for Massachusetts; Mr. INGERSOL, for Connecticut; and Messieurs MACCARTA and JOHNSON, for New-Hampshire and Rhode-Island.

From Virginia we learn, that a party of Cherokee Indians had arrived at Staunton, in Augusta county, in their way to Winchester, having a pass from colonel Lewis for that purpose, but that on their way thither, they were attacked by upwards of twenty men, when their chief, with four more of said Indians, were killed and two more wounded; upon which a proclamation was immediately issued, offering a reward for the murderers.

The stamp act takes place the first day of November next; and JOHN HUGHES and WILLIAM COXE, Esquires, we hear, are the officers appointed for this province and the Jerseys.

June 20. By a gentleman from Bedford we learn, that all was very quiet on the Communication betwixt and Pittsburg; that a large Quantity of Goods had lately come there; and that a White Man, named M'Clure, was killed at that place by an Indian, occasioned by some difference betwixt them, when the Indian took an opportunity of dispatching him with his Knife. He afterwards escaped, but some other Indians had gone out to endeavour to catch him, and bring him in.

Extract of a letter from Staunton, in Virginia, dated May 29.

"On the 12th instant, two of the party of Cherokee Indians, who escaped from the white people, went to the house of a blind man, about ten miles from hence, where they tomahawked him and his wife, and took a very small scalp off of the man, but did not disfigure the woman. The same day, about four miles from thence, as they were lying behind a log, a man on horse-back came up, and his horse starting, threw him, when one of the Indians seized and struck him in the cheek with his tomahawk, and imagining he had done his business, left him, and went to assist the other in catching the horse, but in the mean time the man escaped, putting his hat under the wound, to catch the blood, that they might not track him."

WILMINGTON, June 28.

Last week John Quince, Esq; was married to Miss Lobb, (a Niece of Capt. Jacob Lobb's) at Brunswick; an agreeable young Lady.

ATKINS & WESTON,

Inform their friends, that they have removed their store from Roper's Bridge, to the store lately possessed by Messrs. ROW & JACKSON, at Stono-Landing, at which place they constantly keep a good assortment of goods; which they will sell at the Charles-Town prices.

AND, in order to remove any prejudice that may arise from an apprehension that they have a stock of old and unsaleable goods, on account of their having come thither; they assure their friends, that they have taken such as are very good, and well bought, having been allowed in the purchase, to take only such as they approved of; which with their own stock, form a very good assortment.

And, as the store has long been favoured with the friendship of many worthy and wealthy persons, so they hope for the same being transferred to them, which has been their sole motive for removing thither: At the same time, they beg the continuance of their friends custom, who were pleased to prefer them at their other store, not doubting but they have it in their power to render them perfect satisfaction. 6.

JACOB MOTTE, Public-Treasurer.

LONDON, New-York and Carolina WINES, two years old; also a parcel of new Wines, just imported, are to be sold very cheap, for cash or short credit, by TORRANS, POAUG, & Comp.

Charles-Town, May 4th, 1765.

AS the time I have undertaken to inspect INDICO for sale in this town, at one per cent. expired the 25th of March past; it is necessary I should acquaint the public, that it will not hereafter suit me to do the same for less than two dollars per hundred; and that, for sorting, garbling and sealing Indico, from those whose names are not in my register for the three last crops, I shall expect five per cent. on invoice, provided they signify their intention to employ me, before the 20th of July next, accompanied with a ten pounds bill.

If after this offer, any should have reason to complain that their Indico, sent home without my seal and certificate, is a drug there, they must blame themselves for presuming it would be otherwise.

At the same time, I would advise all persons who have Indico damped or purposely wetted, or who jumble the 1st, 2d and 3d sorts together, in order to impose on purchasers, not to offer the same for my inspection; as I am determined always to publish my opinion of such parcels, with the names of the makers, or vendors, in the very next gazette, to prevent its being any longer thought at home that, by my silence, I am the father of, or countenance, all the iniquitous practices which have been committed with Carolina indico.

MOSES LINDO, Inspector General of Indico.
